

Facilities Master Plan Findings

An independent study funded jointly by the commissioners and school board in 2019 found that district schools were, in some cases, literally falling apart.

The study rated more than 50% of our schools as being in poor or unsatisfactory condition with outdated systems for heating and cooling, electrical and wiring, plumbing, technology and other critical infrastructure needs.