

GUILFORD
EDUCATION ALLIANCE

Did You Know...

Minority and Women Business Enterprises (MWBE)

Did You Know...

GCS students are primarily students of color - 42% Black, 29% white, 17% Hispanic, 7% Asian and 5% two or more races.

GCS is working hard to recruit contractors to build schools who reflect our community's diverse demographics.

www.GEANC.org

Did You Know...

In 2002, NC lawmakers wrote guidelines for state and public entities to have a minimum 10% minority business participation goal. The state certifies Minority and Women Business Enterprises (MWBE) and Historically Underutilized Businesses (HUB).

www.GEANC.org

Did You Know...

"For decades, race ruled some people in and race ruled other people out and we've built an entire industry on access," explains Deena Hayes-Greene, chair of the Guilford County Board of Education. GCS is working to build access to opportunities for those ruled out in the past.

www.GEANC.org

Did You Know...

TRS&I is the firm working to find MWBE and HUBs to work on GCS projects. "Economic opportunities spill over in the community supporting schools, churches, small businesses homeowners and neighborhoods," says Deena Hayes-Greene, chair of the Guilford County Board of Education.

www.GEANC.org